

HCC Civil Society Accountability Framework for Childhood Obesity Prevention (COP) Policies in the Caribbean

Mapping regional and national high-level political commitments and tracking achievement

Building capacity for HCC member CSOs including youth to hold national and regional policymakers accountable

Empowering the public to hold governments accountable

Building capacity to identify and manage conflict of interest and counter industry interference in public health policymaking

High-level advocacy to hold policymakers accountable to commitments

HCC Accountability webpage, Childhood Obesity Prevention Scorecard (COPS)

Onward granting for tailored capacity building, formation of the CSO Action Team, online webinars and convening of regional multistakeholder meetings; joint material development and social media campaigns

HCC Call to Action online petition - 'Too much Junk' campaign, My Healthy Caribbean Schools (MHCS)

Hosting a number of meetings on conflict of interest and developing guidance to assist with identification and management of COI; mapping and countering industry interference in policymaking; Industry interference/ COI newsletter

Open and closed Letters to Heads and Ministers; social media messages and campaigns; attendance at high level regional meetings and on regional task forces/ committees; 2019 Call for Urgent Action re nutrition policies

